2: Important information

Application

- You may apply for admission to one major or mono study program.
- Hand in your application file as early as possible – ideally 4 months prior to the start of the degree program.

Supporting documents to your application

- All documents must be sent by letter post in one file. We do not review any electronic documents.
- Missing documents will be requested; they delay the application process.
- Your eligibility for admission will only be reviewed after receipt of all the required documents, the application fee – and if need be – additional fee for a late application.

Decision of admission

The decision of admission is taken and communicated by the Admissions Office.

1 The Institute of Social Anthropology evaluates your previous study record, looks for equivalences, assesses which courses at master or bachelor level you still need to do before being admitted into the specialized M A in Cultural Differences and Transnational Processes CREOLE.

Basis of the recognition of your degree and study achievements are the documents submitted at the time of the request.
3: Language requirements

Courses of the mono master 'CREOLE-Cultural Differences and Transnational Processes' are mainly given in English or, depending on the participating institute, in German. Therefore, a good knowledge of English is necessary.

The Academic English Services offers language courses to registered students.

The German as a foreign language unit provides German courses from levels A1 to C2 (beginners to advanced) for registered students.

4: Further procedure

Personal interviews for entry in fall: More details will be announced directly by the Department.

5: Processing time

At least 4 to 6 weeks after receipt of the required documents.

6: Studying

Studies at the University of Bern are full-time, which can be attended neither part-time nor by correspondence.

7: Steps in your application for admission to a non-medical master's degree program

8: Conditions relevant to entering and residing in Switzerland
