

Application with an international degree

Application for the master's program in Chemistry and Molecular Sciences

General information

- Your eligibility for admission will only be reviewed after receipt of all required documents and the application fee.
- Missing documents will be requested; this delays the application process.
- The Admissions Office will check whether or not your application meets the formal requirements (duration 1-3 weeks). If so, the relevant faculty will then evaluate your previous study record (placement decision; duration 4-8 weeks) based on the documents submitted at the time of the request. Please find an overview of the process from application to registration here.
- The final decision of admission or rejection is made and communicated by the Admissions Office.

Language requirements

- One of the following English language test scores must be submitted with the application:

Language test	Minimum score
TOEFL Internet IBT	72
TOEFL paper based testing PBT	513
IELTS academic test	5
Cambridge First Certificate in English

The result must not be older than 2 years at the time of the application for admission.

Exemption from the English test

An exemption from the English test is possible if you completed your studies with English as the language of instruction and within a language community, in which English is the main spoken language; see the following countries/territories list:
