Workshop: First steps in intercultural learning

Thursday, June 15, 2017, 9.30 to 14.00
UniS, Schanzeneckstrasse 1, 3012 Bern
Room B-105

Join us for a workshop on the inspiring and interesting topic of intercultural learning and study abroad. This workshop is developed especially for students and doctoral students who are preparing their stay abroad, and for international exchange students and doctoral students who are currently studying at the University of Bern.

The workshop is aimed at supporting you in developing your intercultural learning skills, and encourages you to be critical about your views on the culture and society of your host and your home country.

We will discuss your expectations for your study abroad, learn about complex terms such as culture and interculturality, and reflect on how you can best prepare for coping with the new environment.

Participating in this workshop is also helpful for being part of an international students’ network at the University of Bern.

We look forward to welcoming you!
