

Application with an international degree

Documents for review of academic qualifications and placement¹ into the master's mono degree program in Precision Engineering offered by the Faculty of Science

Carefully read the following introductory notes before compiling the required documents.

1: Application

- Online application www.application.unibe.ch
- Required documents see checklist in this document
- Application deadlines www.unibe.ch/applicationdeadlines_students

2: Important information

Application

- You may apply for admission to one mono study program.
- Hand in your application file as early as possible – ideally 4 months prior to the start of the degree program.

Supporting documents to your application

- All documents must be sent by letter post in one file. We do not review any electronic documents.
- Missing documents will be requested; they delay the application process.
- Your eligibility for admission will only be reviewed after receipt of all the required documents, the application fee – and if need be – additional fee for a late application.

Application after the regular application deadline

If you apply after the regular application deadline, the supporting documents to your application must arrive by 31 August and 31 January respectively.

¹ The committee in charge of the Faculty of Science evaluates your previous study record, looks for equivalences, assesses which courses at master or bachelor level you still need to do before being admitted into the desired master's degree program at the University of Bern and decides on what level you will be placed at and how many of your credits can be transferred.

Basis of the recognition of your degree and study achievements are the documents submitted at the time of the request.

Decision of admission

The decision of admission is taken and communicated by the Admissions Office.

3: Language requirements

Lectures of the master's mono program in Precision Engineering offered by the Faculty of Science are held in English.

Excellent language skills in English are essential. NO language test scores are required for the mentioned master programs.

The Academic English Services offers language courses to registered students.
