Application with an international degree

Application with an international degree for the following master program:
- Biomedical Engineering

General information
- Your eligibility for admission will only be reviewed after receipt of all required documents and the application fee.
- Missing documents will be requested; this delays the application process.
- The Admissions Office will check whether or not your application meets the formal requirements (duration 1-3 weeks). If so, the relevant faculty will then evaluate your previous study record (placement decision; duration 4-8 weeks) based on the documents submitted at the time of the request. Please find an overview of the process from application to registration here.
- The final decision of admission or rejection is made and communicated by the Admissions Office.

Language requirements
- No language test scores are required for the above-mentioned programs.
- The above-mentioned program is taught in English. You are responsible for ensuring that you master the language of instruction.

Payment information for the application fee
- This fee is for a specific semester and is non-refundable if your application does not lead to registration in that semester.
- If you live in Switzerland: We will send you an invoice by letter post within 7-10 days after receipt of your online application.
- If you live outside of Switzerland, please find our bank information below:
  - Regular application fee (regular online application): CHF 105
  - Late application fee (late online application): CHF 205

The University of Bern does not cover any money or bank transfer fees. Please pay attention to the currency exchange rate. Underpayments will be claimed and overpayments will not be refunded.

This fee can be paid by any person, but make sure that your family name and given names are stated on the debit note so that the money can be assigned to your application.
