

Swiss-European Mobility Programme

Staff Mobility for Teaching Assignments (STA) Outgoing

Teaching staff at the University of Bern have the possibility of taking up a teaching assignment at a SEMP (Erasmus) partner university.

Conditions:

1. There is a Swiss-European Mobility (Erasmus) agreement between the University of Bern and the host university.
2. The teaching activity must be fully integrated into the host university course programme and last between 2 days to maximal 60 days. The minimum 2 days must be consecutive.
3. The teaching activity has to comprise a minimum of 8 hour of teaching per week (or any shorter period of stay). For combined mobility (teaching and training), the minimum number of lessons is reduced from 8 to 4. If the mobility lasts longer than one week, the minimum number of teaching hours for an incomplete week should be proportional to the duration of that week.
4. Participants must hand in a Mobility Agreement, Grant Agreement, Certificate of Attendance and Final Report to UniBE International.

Financial Refund:

Travel costs: Effective costs by receipts (max. 600 CHF) for outward and return trip (one time).
Daily allowance: CHF 170 per working and travelling day (Day 1-14) resp. CHF 80 (Day 15-60)

Procedure:

1. Applicants discuss and confirm their stay with the host institution and hand in a Mobility Agreements at UniBE International, Ms Cornelia Stuber (cornelia.stuber@int.unibe.ch).
2. Upon approval of the application UniBE International confirms the financing in a Grant Agreement. The participant returns the signed Agreement to UniBE International before the start of the mobility.
3. During the mobility the participant has the dates of the stay confirmed in a Certificate of Attendance.
4. After the stay the participant fills in the Final Report.
5. Within 4 weeks after the training the participant hands in the following documents at UniBE International, Ms Cornelia Stuber (cornelia.stuber@unibe.ch):
  - a. Final Report
  - b. Certificate of Attendance
  - c. Receipts of travel expenses
6. UniBE International transfers the refund to the participant's bank account.
