

UNIVERSITY OF BERN

Staff Weeks promote international networking and professional exchange. They offer employees an opportunity to enhance their professional, language, and intercultural skills, gain new inspiration for their work, and actively contribute to the development of their institution.

Target Audience

ENLIGHT Staff Weeks are open to staff, lecturers, and researchers at the University of Bern.

Benefits

With ENLIGHT Staff Weeks, you can:

- expand your professional knowledge in a new environment
- engage in professional exchange and share best practices
- build an international network
- strengthen your language and intercultural skills.

Financial Support

Employees of the University of Bern can apply for financial support to participate in ENLIGHT Staff Weeks through the SEMP staff mobility program (Swiss-European Mobility Programme), which covers travel costs and provides a daily allowance.

Language Preparation

ENLIGHT Staff Weeks are held in English. The University of Bern's Language Centre offers courses to refresh your language skills. Most semester and block courses at the Language Centre are also open to University of Bern staff. The courses are subject to fees.
