

Equal Opportunities Prize

Prix Lux 2024

This year, the University of Bern is awarding the Prix Lux equal opportunities prize for the eighth time. The award-winning measures should actively promote equal opportunities.

Conditions for participation

Nominations can be made for university units (institutes, faculties, NCCRs) or groups of persons (groups or teams of students or staff) who are committed to equal opportunities at the University of Berne.

The submitted measures should actively promote equal opportunities - in terms of racism, gender, social origin, sexual harassment, physical and mental disabilities, sexual orientation, migration experience or age. They should stimulate discussion on equal opportunities issues, be innovative, original and sustainable and have transfer potential.

Price

The price winner will receive CHF 2,000.- and a luminous object.

Application deadline

The deadline for applications is 15 June 2024. Please send your applications or suggestions with an explanation via e-mail to info.afc@unibe.ch or by post to the address below.

You can find more information on our website: www.prix-lux.unibe.ch

Is your team engaged to equal opportunities at the University of Bern? We look forward to receiving your application!

u^b